Town councillor resigns over cost of the Beehive

A SENIOR Honiton town councillor has resigned due to the "unacceptable" use of public money to fund the Beehive community centre, which he said was "detrimental" to the interests of ratepayers.

Councillor Mike Allen, who also represents Honiton on East Devon District Council, notified the mayor of his resignation from the town council on Tuesday (April 15th), following what he described as "undemocratic" debates over the control of the Beehive.

He said: "I feel that the chairing of the key debates on the Beehive has been undemocratic and that incoming finances for the running of the Beehive are being devoted entirely to the unelected Honiton Community Complex Company, trading as 'the Beehive'.

"I believe this is completely detrimental to the interests of the ratepayers of Honiton and an unacceptable use of civic funds."

At a meeting on Monday evening (April 14th), a day prior to Councillor Allen's resignation, councillors received an updated report from the Beehive company directors, which explained that financial margins for the centre were "likely to be tight".

Councillor Allen has consistently opposed the current Beehive payment structure, which means the council must repay a £53,000-a-year loan for the next 30 years in addition to the £20,000 annual rent for the centre. He also called for the people of Honiton to be consulted on the issue via a town poll.

He added: "It is unacceptable that ratepayers must pay the loan and £20,000 per year for their own building when the Beehive Company are only charged £1 per year.

"Community organisations are being charged so much for meeting rooms that they cannot afford to come. Pressures on certain organisations to come to the Beehive, and in at least one case incorporated into the Beehive Company, have been quite inappropriate.

"I therefore believe the town ought to have a say in the future of the Beehive via a town poll."

Councillor Allen will continue to represent the town on East Devon District Council, for which he is a member of two key committees and has recently been made Business Champion.

He also cited his extra commitments on the district council as a further reason for his resignation.

Responding to Councillor Allen's resignation, Councillor Vernon Whitlock – one of the Beehive company

EASTER ARTWORK | A range of Easter events were held at Honiton Library to mark the Bank Holiday weekend, and young readers got their hands on some extra eggs for showing off their artistic skills.

Children took part in an arts and crafts workshop earlier in the week and all 35 entries in the colouring competition were displayed ahead of Good Friday.

The competition winners were Isobel Bowland-Davis and Tommy West, who each took home an Easter egg for their work. Library supervisor Linda Isaacson is pictured next to a display of the entries.

Quotes of the week...

“HONITON has the second highest percentage of young people in its population in East Devon, but that is not currently reflected by the members of the town council. I think I can fill the void. A lot of young people feel disconnected from some of the town's facilities and projects - they must be given a sense that they do have a purpose in the community and that they are not seen as a burden”

HONITON's new councillor Henry Brown, just 21 years old after being co-opted onto the town council.

“I FEEL that the chairing of the key debates on the Beehive has been undemocratic and that incoming finances for the running of the Beehive are being devoted entirely to the unelected Honiton Community Complex Company, trading as 'the Beehive'. I believe this is completely detrimental to the interests of the ratepayers of Honiton and an unacceptable use of civic funds”

SPORT

Mid table for Tigers

A LATE goal denied Axminster Town a useful point after a 2-1 defeat at fourth-placed Exwick Villa.

Top-scorer Ben Turner had earlier scored his 10th goal of the season.

There was better news from Good Friday's trip to Teignmouth where an Adam Cowling goal, along with a first clean league sheet of the campaign, clinched an impressive 1-0 win.

The Tigers, now 13th in the South West Peninsula League Division One East) table, were due to travel to face Appledore yesterday (Monday) before completing their campaign with a trip to Budleigh Salterton and Saturday and the visit of Plymouth next Monday.

Meanwhile, Sidmouth Town came out on top in the local derby with Budleigh Salterton at Manstone Road on Good Friday.

Budleigh opened the scoring with their first attack only for Jake Boyland to equalise seven minutes before half-time.

Andy Thompson edged the Viking ahead with a superb 25-yarder in the 67th minute and Alex Raistrick claimed the game-clinching third five minutes from time.

AXMINSTER

Town growth 'will save' the library

AXMINSTER'S growth is the strongest weapon in the fight to save the town's library from downgrading or closure, according to town councillors.

Concerned members of the public are urged to take part in the ongoing consultation exercise and show their support by attending a public drop-in session at the library early next month.

Devon County Council (DCC) has proposed to effectively make a string of libraries, including Axminster, second-tier, volunteer-led facilities as part of a £1.5 million cost-cutting exercise.

DCC recently announced plans to develop a number of current libraries into what is known as "Devon Centres offering a broader range of services".

But Axminster Library is not on the list, instead being among 28 smaller libraries for which the future is unclear.

A DCC spokesperson said: "Libraries serving smaller communities fall within a proposal to encourage and support communities to come forward with ideas on how the service could be sustained in future.

"The council has no single model in mind, recognising that Devon's towns and villages are very different."

Devon County Council has stressed it does "not intend for the library to close", but town, district and county councillor Andrew Moulding told Axminster Town Council: "If we don't come up with an idea, the worst might happen."

He said that visitor numbers were down almost 30 per cent over a five-year period, but added: "Our best case is the growth of the town.

"We have to convince people that our numbers are going up."

Mayor Jeremy Walden agreed wholeheartedly, saying: "The houses are being built as we speak."

But he had previously warned fellow councillors about library usage statistics, saying: "The figures must be read with an understanding of what is behind them, including opening hours."

From the editor's chair A time to look forward

EASTER is my favourite time of the year. Apart from being the most important date on the religious calendar, I always think it is a time of hope, a time to look forward.

No matter whether you are a believer or not, Eastertide lifts the spirit and encourages us to make the most of our lot in life.

The dark days of winter (another dramatic one) are behind us and we are foolish enough to believe that one of those glorious, long hot summers is just around the corner.

But we should remember that all is not fine in a world peppered with sad and calamitous events. Tensions run high on the Russian front, the people of Syria continue to endure unbelievable dangers and hardship, the sinking of the ferry with the loss of so many young lives in South Korea has shocked the world - and our friends at Water Survival Box, our adopted charity, have been working flat out in recent days to send aid to those made homeless in the earthquake and tsunami in Chile and a major fire that engulfed some 3,000 homes in Valparaiso. Closer to home, despite the advent of spring, life continues to throw up hardships for many, demonstrated by the continual need for food banks in all East Devon towns.

The erosion of services that we have come to expect over the years are a worrying factor and will impact greatly on our way of life as this period of austerity hits hard on the public purse.

In Axminster a double fight will dominate our headlines in the weeks to come to protect the local hospital and library from further uncertainties.

Similar challenges exist in other East Devon towns in Pulman's Country.

There is one factor, however, in which we can all take comfort. And that is the level and community help and spirit which forms such a crucial part of living and working in East Devon, an area which has always taken pride in looking after its own.

That's one very good reason for celebrating this Easter.

COLYTON

Flooding fears over new homes

COLYTON residents and councillors have strongly objected to plans for 25 new houses on land next to the Peace Memorial Playing Field, citing the risk of flooding as a major concern.

The application, submitted by DBD Development, based in Shute, was considered by Colyton Parish Council last week when many residents attended to raise their concerns in the public forum.

Speaking on behalf of his neighbours, one resident said they were "all very concerned" and had already submitted objections for a number of reasons, including flooding risks, the proposed site not being in the built up area of Colyton, it being out of line with Colyton's Parish Plan and it being unsustainable, mainly due to the size of Colyton Primary School and the number of other new houses which had already received permission to be built in the town.

Neighbours have also objected on the grounds of the visual impact the development would have on the surrounding area and the loss of green space.

SEATON

Council wins cash for tiny tots park

YOUNGSTERS and their parents will choose from three shortlisted Elizabeth Road Play Park, Seaton, designs following the award of a £10,000 grant towards play equipment for under fives.

What is formally known as The Little Ones' Project started during a consultation exercise.

Section 106 money (generated from developers as part of the planning process) had been secured for Elizabeth Road Play Park. The plans were welcomed overall, but there was one shortcoming.

Town councillor Dawn Squire told fellow town councillors last week: "Whilst conducting the final stage consultation for the 106 funding, it was commented upon by several parents that there was no new equipment for the under fives.

"Amongst the very positive comments about the new play equipment, many people also reiterated the lack of under fives' play equipment."

To try to remedy the situation, an application for National Lottery funding under the Awards for All Scheme was submitted.

Councillor Squire said: "Working with Pink Hippos, Ruperts and Axe Valley Children Centre, we sent out a questionnaire to parents to determine in more detail their views.

"I am delighted to confirm that we were successful in our Awards for All grant application.

"The £10,000 we received will cover the cost of the equipment, installation and delivery.

OTTERY

ORGANISERS of Ottery St Mary's historic street market have vowed to put a stop to the parking problems that blighted last year's events.

An attempt was made to restore the street market in May last year but persistent difficulties with enforcement of parking restrictions meant vehicles continued to block the road during market days and some owners refused to move them.

Councillors decided to restrict the street market for three months from last July, and since then they have been working to ensure similar problems do not befall the market again.

And ahead of its grand reopening next weekend, organisers are confident that parking issues will not affect this year's markets.

Mums-to-be reassured over maternity unit

by Jack Dixon

CONCERNED mothers have been assured that the maternity unit at Honiton Hospital is not under threat of closure, after the service was temporarily suspended last month.

Health bosses said "exceptionally high levels of staff sickness" had forced them to suspend services at the unit on March 23rd, and it is now been out of action for a month.

Tracy Reeves, Associate Director of Midwifery and Patient Care and Acting Deputy Chief Nurse at the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust, which runs the maternity unit, said services would be resumed "as quickly as possible".

She said: "Our priority is ensuring services for new mothers and their babies are safe and high quality and the unit will remain closed until we are confident staffing levels have returned to normal and that this level can be sustained."

"This is an operational matter and is not a question about the future of the service."

"We have been unable to redeploy midwifery staff from other areas to the unit as this would make it difficult for us to provide safe, high quality services elsewhere.

"Our bank midwifery staff provide short term cover for sickness and are unable to provide long term commitments to cover the work required in a community setting. Women planning home births will continue to be supported. All routine antenatal and postnatal care is unaffected."

"Temporary alternative arrangements have been made for women planning a midwife led birth to receive care at the Exeter Birth Unit at the RD&E Hospital or at the Tiverton Birth Unit. It is hoped that the service will be reopened for post-natal care and births by July 2014."

"We would like to apologise to any women who have been inconvenienced, but would assure them that the decision has been taken to ensure the safest service provision for mothers and babies at this time."

Kate Adkin, a student mentor at Honiton Community College who gave birth to her first child at the hospital, said the situation was affecting her decision whether or not to have more children.

She said: "I had my daughter at Honiton and it was an amazing experience."

"It will be a real shame if everyone is directed to Exeter instead. The situation is quite bizarre."

"They have lots of facilities there and I am concerned the unit will be closed and those facilities taken away. I would love to have more children but the idea of going to Exeter is a concern."

Gwen Pearson, Commissioning Manager for Maternity Services at Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group, (NEW Devon CCG), which commissions the service, said: "As commissioners of this service we want to see this service up and running again as soon as it is safe to do so."

"We are working with the RD&E to ensure everything possible is done to achieve this as soon as possible."

Euro hustings this Friday

THE Liberal Democrats, Conservatives, Labour, UKIP and The Green Party have all confirmed they will have EU election candidates in Honiton on Friday, April 25th.

Honiton Senior Voice (HSV) is holding what it calls "its most ambitious exercise in democracy" in the Methodist Hall.

The Euro Hustings will start at 2pm (with doors open to the public from 1:30pm), and HSV spokesperson Tony Simpson said: "The recent Farage-Clegg debate has aroused interest in the EU but that was a popularity contest for TV. This is the real thing with local candidates to be voted on by local people."

Attending the hustings will be students from Honiton Community College with tutor Selena Burroughs.

Hustings organiser June Brown added: "We have worked hard on this and are very pleased that so many candidates have agreed to attend and answer questions from the people of Honiton."

"Everyone able to vote is welcome to come along and we are very pleased to welcome sixth form students and their tutor from Honiton Community College."

"They and other people will have a unique opportunity to meet candidates, quiz them on what they stand for and influence them on the EU."

HSV chairman Vic Bowsher added: "Honiton Senior Voice has a tradition of holding democratic forums including MPs, the police commissioner, councillors, etc."

"The elections for the European Parliament on May 22nd are probably the most important yet. They will set the policies of Europe for the next five years including who will represent us and who will lead the EU."

"We in Britain are promised a referendum on Europe but many people need more information. Whatever your views we urge you to come along and play a constructive part."

The following South West Candidates have agreed to attend and will speak in alphabetical order: Kay Barnard (Liberal Democrats), Georgina Butler (Conservatives), Tony McIntyre (UKIP), Emily Mclvor (Green Party) and Clare Moody (Labour).

directors - insisted that the majority of those in control of the complex were appointed by the town council and therefore answerable to ratepayers.

He said: "The building and project, which is the culmination of a long-term vision of the town council, has the overwhelming support of the majority of town councillors."

"The Beehive is already proving extremely popular and is addressing the long-term problem of a lack of community facilities in a growing town at the heart of East Devon. In the first two weeks of opening over 2,000 people have come through the doors."

"The comments from the many visitors, some of whom have in the past been opposed to the project, have all been positive now that they can see what the town council has built."

Free cookery classes

An Axminster-based charity will bring two free cooking courses to Honiton.

HALFF (Health and Local Food for Families) will offer 'Cooking and Eating when Pregnant' and 'Cooking on a Budget' courses.

The first one starts on Wednesday, May 7th as a series of four weekly sessions available for pregnant women and their partners.

The class will cover nutrition for mums-to-be, cooking demos, tasty healthy recipes for meals and snacks, tips for breast feeding, weaning and more.

The Honiton classes will take place between 1:30pm and 3pm at The Children's Centre, Clapper Lane.

To book a place, e-mail sandra@halff.org.uk or call 01297 631782.

The Cooking on a Budget course will consist of six, two-hour sessions.

HALFF's Laura O'Rourke said: "During the six-session course you will learn basic cooking techniques to enable you to prepare healthy and nutritious recipes with confidence, and learn more about meal planning and budgeting, inexpensive recipes, savvy shopping and using leftovers."

The course starts on Wednesday, May 7th at The King's Centre, Lees Buildings, High Street, from from 10:30am to 12:30pm.

HALFF is also keen to help people looking for work to develop new skills to help them in their job search by encouraging volunteering in their shop, garden or office.

To book your free place, call 01297 631782 or go to www.halff.org.uk to find out more.

Council to 'get tough' on fire hazards

COUNCIL flat tenants in East Devon have been promised better protection in the event of a fire, after East Devon District Council pledged to "get tough" on people who block escape routes or start fires in public spaces.

The council has planned a major programme of improvements to many of its 200 apartment buildings across the district, including emergency lighting, safety doors and stricter enforcement of fire regulations.

Mobility scooters will be banned in lifts and stairwells and the council will provide additional storage space for pushchairs and recycling materials to make sure there is no need for these items to be kept in the way of fire exits.

Councillor Jill Elson, EDDC's Cabinet Member for Sustainable Homes and Communities, said: "During the past several months we have been talking to tenants and explaining the importance of ensuring that people have the best possible chance of escaping from a blaze in a block of flats.

"We have also briefed many of our tenants and have delivered letters to a number of flats explaining what we are doing and why."

The clamp down follows a series of Fire Risk Assessments carried out by the council after advice from Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service.

A high number of fatal blazes in flats and apartment blocks across the country have triggered the Fire Service to look at ways to provide extra protection.

And in the South West, the service has tightened its enforcement of regulations and is now insisting that councils and other landlords review their emergency procedures and safety measures.

Councillor Elson added: "Not only does the council want to be a responsible landlord and meet its moral duty of care to tenants but we would be open to prosecution if we did not comply with Fire Service instructions.

"There can be no compromise when people's lives are at stake."

East Devon funding for village projects

EAST Devon District Council has funding of up to £5,000 available for village halls, community shops and other community buildings in rural areas.

The grants can be used to help refurbish, improve or even build village halls, community shops and community buildings in rural areas (those in towns are not eligible).

These grants have been available from EDDC for some years, but have previously been administered by the Community Council of Devon.

Successful projects in the past have included improvements to the stage at Clyst St Mary Village Hall, re-roofing at Poltimore Village Hall and kitchen and toilet upgrades at Woodbury Village Hall.

Match funding

You can apply for a maximum of £5,000 and there must be match funding available of at least twice the amount of the funding from other sources plus local fund-raising. So, for a grant of £5,000 you would need to show that you can obtain £10,000 from elsewhere.

The closing dates are July 30th and November 28th.

To find out more go to: www.east-devon.gov.uk/communitybuildings-fund or phone Jamie Buckley, Community Engagement and Funding Officer, on (01395) 517569 or e-mail jbuckley@eastdevon.gov.uk

EDDC Councillor David Cox, who sits on the grant decision-making panel, said: "In our rural areas, halls and community buildings are often at the very heart of the village and may be the only communal facility available to residents. East Devon District Council recognises their importance and continues to support them."

AROUND 35 members of The Rotary Club of Axminster, with members of the Inner Wheel of Axminster, partners and friends enjoyed an exciting Skittle Championship at the Tuckers Arms.

Twenty Rotarians members played a highly competitive game to produce a clear cut winner almost at the last skittle.

An early 'flop' by Rotarian Bill Coltham gained him a good lead, for it to be whittled down by Rotarian David Guy to begin to anticipate a tie for the lead and a play off.

However, as is usual, good work by Rotarian Jon Beck right at the end produced a clear two-pin lead and the winning score.

Car park confusion

CONFUSION over the cost of parking in the Lace Walk long stay car park, recently renamed the 'Hulbert Gallery' car park, has been addressed by East Devon District Council.

The short stay tariff was incorrectly loaded into the long stay machine during changes to the system, meaning it would have cost £10 instead of £3 for a 24-hour stay. The correct tariff has now been loaded back into the machine.

The Hulbert Gallery car park will soon be split into 12 short stay spaces and 27 long stay spaces.

Street market to bounce back

by Jack Dixon

HONITON Street Market is set to bounce back from a difficult three-year period, after town councillors approved cost-cutting measures that could help it to run more efficiently.

At the April full council meeting last week, councillors approved a proposal to retake control of the market, following a review of its management structure and concerns over its future.

The market charter is still owned by the council but a private company currently oversees the day-to-day running of the Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday markets.

And in a report to councillors last week, market manager Tony McCollum said the company's control had actually had a detrimental effect on the market's success.

But recommendations made to the council by town clerk Chetna Jones, which could reduce VAT and other costs for the market, were given the green light at the council's April meeting.

A committee will be appointed to manage the market at the council's next full meeting in May, after which the existing Honiton Street Market company will be wound down.

Mr McCollum said: "To return the market to the way it was will be a positive step. We have actually had a number of traders come forward to join the market in the last few weeks and if the weather improves, I am confident we will be able to bounce back again.

"High Street is starting to buzz again and hopefully we are now over the worst of it."

Mr McCollum's report indicated that traders had given up on the Honiton market in recent years and had either moved elsewhere or stopped trading altogether.

He also reported that the recession was continuing to have a negative impact on visitor numbers to the town.

But plans for the future management of the market look set to give it a new lease of life and Mayor David Foster, a former director of the Street Market company, is confident of attracting more visitors to the town.

He told Pulman's View: "It has been a tough time but we believe now the only way is up.

"We are forecast six weeks of very good weather and we are already seeing stalls starting to come back.

"The decision taken by the council is the best way forward for the future sustainability of the street market.

"We fully value our unique market and we are now optimistic that it will prevail."

Still no cardboard recycling

HONITON residents will have to wait to find out whether a temporary cardboard collection service can be arranged for the town.

Honiton has been without a dedicated cardboard recycling facility since Tesco removed its skips due to persistent fly-tipping and mess back in January, and a revised council collection service is in the planning stages.

But councillors had hoped to receive a response from East Devon District Council by the time of the April full council meeting last week, as to whether a temporary kerbside collection service to remove waste cardboard could be organised in the meantime.

Speaking at the meeting, East Devon District Councillor for Honiton, Phil Twiss, said the council had been in contact with private providers and would be discussing options later this month.

He said: "We have been talking to all the major players with a view to trying to get cardboard collections for the community into force.

"Offers from those providers are now in and the council's waste reduction and recycling committee will look at them and discuss them at a meeting on April 29th."

Up until February, Tesco provided facilities for the disposal of glass bottles, cans, cardboard, paper, shoes and clothing on site, but the supermarket opted to remove the skips following persistent 'misuse'.

The nearest recycling centre for Honiton residents is now the waste management facility at Sutton Barton, which is maintained by Devon County Council.

Councillor Twiss told councillors last month that EDDC was 'reluctant' to pay for a cardboard recycling unit in the town because of the same risks that caused Tesco to remove their own skips, but he was confident a solution could be reached.

He added: "We will know what can and cannot be done after the meeting. But I am hoping we can do something about cardboard recycling because we cannot go on like it is at the moment."

■ CRIME in Honiton is down by almost a quarter, the town's Neighbourhood Police Team has reported.

PCSO Dave Keeler told councillors at their April meeting last week that the total number of crimes recorded for March was 45, compared to 59 in the same month last year.

Of the 45 crimes recorded, there were 21 thefts, eight public order offences, five domestic assaults and three incidences of criminal damage.

PCSO Keeler also reported there was no further information to announce regarding the investigation into the Banwell Antiques robbery but that things were "looking positive".

He said: "We have nothing to add regarding the investigation at this stage but things are looking positive.

"We were able to pick up the offender on cameras in the store and along High Street."

Carnival fundraising for 2014 gets underway

FUN OF THE FAIR | Fundraising for the 2014 Honiton Carnivals got underway this week as members of the committee organised a Craft Fair held at Mackarness Hall on Saturday morning. Last year's carnivals relied on funding support from Devon County Council and the committee's recently elected chairman Grant Miller (pictured) said there would be plenty of events planned throughout the year to make sure enough money is raised. Mr Miller is pictured with committee members (from left to right) Helen Turner, Karen Wilson (secretary) and Zoe Branton-Turner

Town's new councillor a 'voice for youth'

YOUNG people in Honiton feel "disconnected" from key facilities and projects and need a "voice" to represent them, according to the town council's newest member.

Twenty-one-year-old Henry Brown became the town's youngest councillor this week following his co-option at the April full council meeting, and he has already made it clear he intends to stand up for young people in the town.

Councillor Brown fills the vacancy created by the resignation of the late Liz

by Jack Dixon

Tirard due to ill health in the November of last year, and he told Pulman's View he wants to make improving youth facilities in the town his number one priority.

Councillor Brown said: "Honiton has the second highest percentage of young people in its population in East Devon, but that is not currently reflected by the members of the town council. I think I can fill the void."

"A lot of young people feel disconnected from some of the town's facilities and projects – they must be given a sense that they do have a purpose in the community and that they are not seen as a burden."

Following a public consultation, Devon County Council has set in motion plans to cut funding to youth services across the county and Honiton's youth centre could be closed.

A petition drawn up by students at Honiton Community College and backed by town councillors Gary Elliot and Caroline Kolek recently gathered more than 600 signatories in one day.

And Councillor Brown says he hopes to bring his experience in dealing with youth issues to the debate, having had a long-running involvement in the Honiton scout movement and a number of years volunteering in the youth service.

During this time he became a senior member of the youth bank, which helped to make decisions on where resources and funding should be allocated.

He added: "I am also interested in environmental issues and health issues in general, and I believe I have much to offer the town council as a young person who was born, bought up, educated and is now working in the town."

False alarm

A THOROUGH search failed to find two men thought to be in difficulty on rocks below steep cliffs between Beer Beach and Seaton Hole on Wednesday, April 16th.

The Coastguard was alerted at about 4:55pm and a spokesperson said: "A member of the public called, reporting two males who appeared to be cut off by the tide."

"Coastguard Helicopter RESCUE-106, Sidmouth Inshore Rescue Boat and Beer Coastguard Rescue Team were all tasked."

"A thorough search of the shoreline below the cliffs was carried out by all three units with no sightings of any persons in difficulty."

"Once confident that the males sighted had departed the area unobserved, all units were then stood down to return to base."

Withdrawn

A PLANNING application for permission to build two dwellings in Ryalls Court, Seaton, has been withdrawn.

Permission had been sought from East Devon District Council (EDDC) to construct two detached dwellings and associated works on land at 7 Ryalls Court.

TFQ Architects, acting for the applicant, wrote in the application: "We believe that the proposed residential development is appropriate for the site, respects the adjacent residential properties, which do not suffer any loss of private amenity. The development can be undertaken without any detrimental effect on the existing trees or the listed building, Cloisters."

But EDDC announced on Monday, April 14th that the applicant had withdrawn the application.

Daylight burglary

MORE than £1,500 worth of valuable items have been stolen from a home in Beer, and police are appealing for witnesses to come forward.

The daylight burglary occurred between 8am and 4:30pm on Thursday, April 10th, and offenders made off with a range of expensive items as well as £50 cash taken from a child's piggy bank.

Offenders forced open a ground floor window of the property in Park Road, before stuffing the valuables into two pillowcases.

Among the items stolen were an iPad and iPad mini, iPod, Samsung Galaxy mobile phone and items of jewellery including bracelets, necklaces, rings, earrings and 20 Marcasite brooches.

Police are appealing to anyone who may have seen anyone acting suspiciously in the area on the day of the offence.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 101, quoting crime reference KN/14/139.

Cycling challenge to stop off in Seaton

TWO cyclists from Shoreham-by-Sea in Sussex will stop off in Seaton during a 12-day challenge in aid of Lions International Blood Research Appeal (LIBRA) – a charity which helps to tackle blood cancers.

Susan Saunders (president of Adur East Lions Club) and her partner Lion Maurice Allen will cycle more than 420 miles in 12 days – starting in Shoreham-by-Sea and finishing in Dover.

Their challenge begins today (April 22nd) and two legs will involve Seaton.

On April 25th they will cycle from Exeter to Seaton, covering 26 miles, with an overnight stay.

The following day they will ride from Seaton to Dorchester, adding another 43 miles to their journey.

Susan said: "We estimate we will cover more than 400 miles so we are putting in lots of training."

"Our activity programme includes spinning classes in the gym and cycling at least once each week."

"We are encouraging fellow Lions members and cycling groups from Seaton and the other areas on our route to join us along the way."

"We decided to pass through Seaton as it has some beautiful scenery."

"Maurice and I chose to support LIBRA as it is such a special Lions charity and it really helps to save lives."

"I think we should all help to raise awareness about blood disorders, research and the development of new treatments."

"We know that Seaton Lions Club is very supportive of our challenge and we are most grateful."

Pirates ahoy!

AMBROSE, the Devon Air Ambulance mascot, just about escaped walking the plank when he came face-to-face with a bunch of sword-wielding pirates at Pecorama on Sunday, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Fortunately these young pirates were some of the nicest Ambrose could ever meet as they enjoyed the sunshine at the Peco Pirate Day which marked the start of the new season at the popular tourist attraction in Beer.

"It has been a great day and all the children and their parents seem to be enjoying themselves," said Karen Chipperfield, who is assistant manager for tourism and marketing.

"The Devon Air Ambulance is our charity for the year and they will be here for all of our major events while at our annual open garden day on July 6th we will be donating all the gate money to them."

The Seaton Drama Group were a great hit with their medley of pirate songs and there was also a treasure hunt and fancy dress competition with prizes for the best dressed pirate.

♦ IN A bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset – where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week – to organise a fundraising event for the charity.

The Water Survival Box is crammed with all you need to stay alive after you have lost everything – cooking and eating utensils, basic means of shelter and other essential kit – but most importantly a water-purification pump that will make clean water from dirty water and provide a family of four with clean water every day for a year.

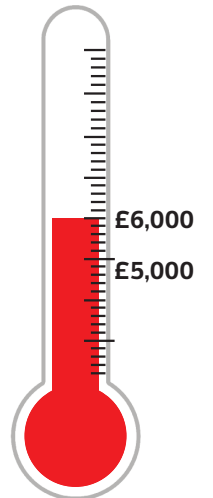

If you would like to organise an event, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will promote it in our columns.

To make a donation, please make a cheque payable to 'Water Survival Box – View account' and send it to: James Coles, Water Survival Box campaign, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, LYME REGIS, Dorset DT7 3DB.

Bumper weekend of fundraising for our Water Survival Box appeal

TARGET

OUR Water Survival Box project was boosted by not one but two big fundraising efforts the weekend before last.

First up, on the Saturday (April 12th), Pulman's View sales executive Jenna Wellman skydived from 15,000ft over Dunkeswell Aerodrome.

Jenna had been scheduled to jump the previous weekend, but a day of nothing but thick fog meant the skydive had to be postponed until the following week.

She described the jump as one of the most exhilarating experiences of her life, and that she'd love to do it again. Jenna thanked everyone who supported her sponsored skydive.

Keeping their feet firmly on the ground at all times, deputy editor James Coles and his brother, Richard, walked from the English Channel (Seaton) to the Bristol Channel (Watchet, West Somerset) over the Sunday and Monday (April 13th & 14th).

Talking after their two-day walk, James said: "We were lucky enough to have perfect weather on both days, and only made a couple of wrong turns along the way!"

"Apart from aching feet and the odd blister, we both made it through unscathed.

"The first day saw us make the gradual ascent from Seaton to Stockland Hill via Colyton and Shute, before crossing the A30, dropping down into Upottery, navigating our way across the Blackdowns and finally descending into Taunton via Bagdon Hill.

"After a much deserved take away curry and a nine-hour kip, we embarked on day two.

"This saw us head out of Taunton via North Fitzwarren and Bishops Lydeard towards the Quantock Hills.

"Although we'd covered the lion's share of the miles on day one, the steeper climbs the Quantocks posed made the second day slightly tougher. But the views were magnificent!

"We reached our final destination of Watchet Harbour by half-five on the Monday, and were more than happy with our efforts."

Richard added: "Even now my right foot is a little sore, but it was all worth it for the personal achievement, and moreover the money raised."

James and Richard would like to thank everyone who sponsored them on their Channel2 Channel Walk.

Rotarian Hugo Pike OBE, director of the charity WorldWaterWorks, which is responsible for the Water Survival Box project, said: "I note that the Coles brothers duly completed their sponsored walk in aid of the Water Survival Box charity – a great achievement – and hopefully the blisters are now beginning to subside!"

"At the same time I saw that

Jenna Wellman has made her sponsored skydive.

"Please pass our congratulations and most sincere thanks to all three of them (and no doubt several supporters who provided essential back-up) for these tremendous efforts."

Including Gift Aid, James and Richard's walk raised just over £1,000 for the appeal, with the final tally for Jenna's jump yet to be calculated.

LATEST NEWS

TWO hundred WSBs are set to be collected from the WorldWaterWorks depot this week.

They are destined to be flown to Santiago in Chile and will then be taken to the north of the country for distribution to families made homeless by the earthquake and tsunami that struck earlier this month.

An offer of boxes to families displaced by a major fire that engulfed some 3,000 homes in Valparaiso last weekend has also been made.

Surprising tales of life at Buckingham Palace

SPEAKER Deborah Bean gave a memorable talk to Axminster Phoenix Ladies Club, about her duties and fascinating trips, spanning nearly 40 years based at Buckingham Palace.

Initially working for the Queen's Private Secretary, Sir Martin Charteris and at a later date, Lord Robert Fellowes, Deborah recounted the working year of the Queen at Windsor, Holyrood Castle, Balmoral and Sandringham.

As we know, the Queen receives her red Despatch Box daily, from the Government of the day with the exception of Easter Day and Christmas Day.

This is in addition to the many functions undertaken throughout the year, a formidable workload which Her Majesty undertakes with good grace and humour.

Deborah, accompanied the Queen's Private Secretary and the Royal Family during the course of the year to many places, both home and abroad, and recalled the time spent on the Royal Yacht Britannia before it was sadly scrapped.

The Despatch Box and other post was dropped by air into the sea for retrieval by the ship's crew, in a buoyant waterproof jacket. Even the rough seas did not hinder daily routine and Deborah recalled intermittent seasickness, whilst taking dictation and performing her duties.

Phoenix Members were invited to look at the various Christmas cards and personal letters sent to Deborah by the Queen and the many awards received during her long Service, including the CVO, conferred upon retirement together with a Silver Armada Dish.

During the meeting, the Chairman presented Stella Landeryou with a special Diamond Anniversary Rose to celebrate her and husband Dave's 60th wedding anniversary.

A special celebratory cake and other goodies were consumed at the following tea.

Stella recounted too that she had received the special card from Buckingham Palace, no longer a telegram as in olden days, to commemorate their happy life of bliss.

Many congratulations to them both. Three new members were welcomed too and existing ones who have been absent with health problems were also welcomed back into the fold.

A fun meeting on a beautiful spring day.

The Phoenix Ladies Club will meet again on Wednesday, 14th May at 2.30pm when speaker Val Sutherland will be telling members what "Nice Girls Never Should Do!"

Visitors are always welcome at the United Reformed Church Hall.

■ MIKE McDonald brought Honiton Art Society members some fresh ideas for abstract painting at their April meeting, showing members how to have fun using different mediums and techniques.

Keeping in mind the importance of design, colour and shape, he advised it was best not to rely purely on imagination, but to get inspiration from other sources too.

Mike painted two pictures - the first was started with washes of brightly coloured acrylic ink on heavy watercolour paper. This was covered with cling film which was removed later leaving a textured surface. To finish the picture Mike developed the shapes present with deeper shades of watercolour intensifying the brilliance of the acrylics.

The second painting had a more structured approach, taking inspiration from a picture of Kents Cavern where Mike often sketches. He started by drawing a pattern of rock shapes with a thick black marker pen. He then applied careful washes of soft watercolour between the lines, creating the effect of a stained glass window. A slight bleeding of the colours gave an effective glassy transparency.

Both pictures were painted with thought and care producing two very different, exciting, fun abstracts. Chairman, Barrie Raby, thanked Mike for an entertaining and inspiring demonstration.

The next meeting of the society will be the AGM on May 12th.

Seaton WI have a go at Fairisle knitting

THE April meeting of Seaton WI was held on Tuesday, April 15th at the Methodist Church Hall, Seaton.

President Ann Attridge opened the meeting by welcoming everyone.

This was followed by the singing of Jerusalem accompanied by Mary Fone.

Ann then introduced the speaker for the evening, Janine Barradale, who brought along some of the wonderful knitted garments she had made, showing her skill in Intarsia and Fairisle knitting.

Janine described the difference between the two knitting styles and gave members two simple patterns to take home and "have a go" at.

Hilda Morgan gave the vote of thanks. Tea and biscuits were then served followed by the business of the month.

Details of the monthly walk, scrabble group and the proposed "round robin" trip in June were given.

Flower of the month competition was won by Denise England, with Aimee Guard second and Gwen Jackson third.

The competition was won by Aimee Guard with Sheila Rumble second and Margaret Nicholas third.

The next meeting is the AGM on Tuesday, May 20th at Methodist Church Hall at 2 pm.

Loss of hospital beds will spread like a rash to others

I WAS simply appalled to hear of the possible closure of even more beds at Axminster Hospital, and it will probably spread like a rash to other community hospitals.

As it is, we do not have the full complement of beds in use here in Seaton.

Besides being so much better for people well enough to be discharged from a main hospital to be treated nearer home, it relieves the problem of "bed blocking" at the major hospitals. Besides this, many people well enough to be discharged from there still need 24-hour care which I'm sure will not be provided by community care.

Having had several operations in Axminster many years ago, it is very close to my heart, as since 2006 I have attended their splendid glaucoma clinic.

I well remember when Axminster was a small cottage hospital with Doctors Morton (surgeon), Finzel (anaesthetist), Parkinson (anaesthetist) and Leech.

Louise Normandale (nee Finzel) was born in the midwifery department 59 years ago this July! The matrons lived in a flat above and Louise remembers Matrons Grant and Sharp and Sister Cousins from Kilmington, who was there in 1955 when she had her appendix removed.

I taught the children of Doctors Finzel, Parkinson and Leech at Pippins School.

Small is beautiful and Axminster is and always has been a dearly loved hospital. I feel so sorry for the League of Friends who have worked so hard and raised an enormous amount of money over many years.

See what's on offer at the Beehive

HONITON Community Complex, trading as The Beehive, is a company wholly owned by Honiton Town Council. The town council appoints the majority of the directors who make minutes of meetings and regular updates to available to all town councillors. It is therefore ultimately answerable to the electorate.

The building and project, which is the culmination of a long term vision of the town council, has the overwhelming support of the majority of town councillors. Former Councillor Allen has always opposed the project and as such has represented the views of some of his constituents.

The Beehive is already proving extremely popular and is addressing the long term problem of a lack of community facilities in a growing town at the heart of East Devon. In the first two weeks of opening more than 2,000 people have come through the doors. The opening concert and dinner dance were fully booked and the oratorio written and presented by the local community choir was a sell out on all three nights. Local groups are also using the building with opportunities to learn jive, swing and even belly dancing.

The venue is also booked by local bands, training organisations, clubs and other local groups; the cafe is already booked for jazz evenings and children's parties and other rooms are being used for the housing benefits surgery and Honiton Town Council.

The comments from the many visitors, some of whom have in the past been opposed to the project, have all been positive now that they can see what the town council has built.

Anyone who has not yet had a chance to have a look around The Beehive is encouraged to come down and see what's on offer.

Thank you for handing mobile phone in at kiosk

I WOULD just like the opportunity to thank the kind lady that handed my BlackBerry mobile phone into the ice cream kiosk on Seaton Seafront on Monday, April 14th.

It was very kind of her and saved me untold trouble of copying new contacts, arranging a new contract etc and having to purchase a new phone. I had just taken my colleague's dog for a walk (in my lunch break) and it must have fallen out of my pocket.

Thank you also to the lovely man in the ice cream kiosk, (for contacting me to let me know about my phone) I will definitely be stopping to buy some treats over the summer months.

Thank you for nominations

I WOULD like, through this column, to thank all of your readers who thought me worthy of being nominated for your much-publicised Pride in Axminster awards.

I was taken by surprise to be nominated as the Emergency Services Champion and I truly admired the professional arrangement and presentation you and your team conducted at the awards ceremony at the Guildhall.

As always, the Pulman's View From team are at the front when it comes to placing Axminster on the map.

I would also like to thank Jamie Love and the Axminster Lions Club for both sponsoring this category and for presenting me with the award at this very enjoyable evening.

Once again, I thank you all for rewarding me for simply doing what has been an enjoyable career and the pleasure in knowing that I was helping the community of Axminster and district.

Fr. Michael Koppel opens at this Easter Week:

One thing which must strike anyone who reads the gospels is that the evangelists are surprisingly frank about the conduct of the apostles after the arrest of Jesus. Their behaviour certainly wasn't heroic. And yet within a few short days everything had changed.

Led by St. Peter, the apostles were out on the streets of Jerusalem, fearfully proclaiming the Good News of the resurrection of the Lord. The extraordinary transformation the apostles had undergone calls for an equally extraordinary explanation. And the only credible explanation is that they had seen him risen; that they had actually encountered the living Lord.

Exeter Cathedral seldom features in our column but there is news this week that organisational changes at the cathedral are planned to increase income and the service to visitors. The Cathedral Cafe is to maximise its potential; there will be changes at the shop, to fit in with a new Welcome Centre. The regular tower tours will run throughout the season. The Virgers will give support to liturgy and a new team of floor managers will cover logistics and security. With a new marketing manager to assist.

This month has seen same-sex marriages become acceptable by the law of the land, but not in churches who hold that marriage is about the complimentary of men and women and continues to apply the previous rules.

Church of England parishes and congregations continue to consider the proposals revised by the General Synod for the women-bishops legislation.

The Exeter Diocesan Synod holds a delayed meeting for their final decision at Exeter on Saturday, May 17th. Observers are permitted in the chamber but cannot speak. Results from all dioceses are expected in July.

The edge of our circulation area is seldom in the news but St John the Baptist Church at Hawkchurch sees fundraising at a coffee morning at the Fairwater Head Hotel 10.45am to 12 noon, for church funds on Wednesday, April 23rd - St George's Day.

Looking ahead the Exeter Cathedral Players are performing a double bill on 12, 13 & 14 June in the cathedral with a pair of parables by David MacWa-ters, The Prodigal Son; Tickets at the Cathedral Shop in May - enquiries the Artistic Director tel 01297 32194.

The Institution and Installation of the Venble Jane Hedges (formerly Rector of Honiton & Canon of Westminster) as Dean of Norwich will take place on Saturday, June 21 at 3pm at Norwich Cathedral.

The first book from Pope Francis "My Door is Always Open" since his election is now on sale, and is summarised as a Conversation on Faith, Hope and the Church in a time of change.

An early reminder - Christian Aid week is 11-17 May.

A reminder from the Gift Aid Small Donations Scheme that from April 1st it became a requirement for charities to include postcodes in all Gift Aid claims. Forms without may be delayed, and the donors might think that they had submitted a legitimate claim when it had not. And the charities and churches may find their claims are delayed because of the lack of information.

Catherine Davies aimed to become a teacher in her native France, but instead found herself working in publishing in England.

One more career change followed and she is known locally as the founder of Axminster-based counselling service Arc.

Where were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in France, in a French city often best known to foreign tourists as being the gateway to Provence and the south of France: Lyon. My formative years were all spent in northern Africa though, in Algiers. My father was an electrical contractor on the harbour and we stayed there for seven years.

Do you have a significant other?

I met my Welsh husband back in 1988, whilst delayed at Clapham Junction train station by British Rail. Where has time gone? Our two children are now late teen/young adults spreading their wings.

Tell us about your professional career, what you studied and what jobs you have had?

I was training to be an English teacher in French secondary schools when I met my husband and opted to live in England. I happily transitioned to working for Harper Collins Publishers, in their Modern Foreign Language department, a job I loved.

How did the idea of Arc come about?

I easily attribute Arc's aspirations to my philosophical French roots: life and death, love and loss, freedom and responsibility. I knew as far back as 2005, near the end of my counselling training, that I wanted to create a service that would address the roots of these human challenges and conflicts. The rest of the service organically grew from the simple desire to listen to the unmet needs of the community and respond adequately.

It continues to require the hard work, passion and persistence of a very dedicated team. I feel very privileged to be so well supported.

Do the letters Arc stand for something?

Honestly? They are not meant to stand for anything. I toyed with the idea of calling the service "Ark" but stumbled across other definitions: a metallurgic process to weld two pieces using energy or even better Leonardo da Vinci's force originated by two weaknesses. The latter clicked. I am aware that some of our supporters have enjoyed creating an anagram that works: Axminster: Recovering with Counselling. It is fine by me.

A respected professional journal has asked you to pen an article about Arc. Tell us more.

Back in January I was asked whether I would put pen to paper and capture a detailed history of Arc for the international Journal of Humanistic Psychology. I have just received confirmation that this long article will be published in their summer edition, which is a great honour and a marvellous opportunity to describe our work here in Axminster to a much broader professional audience. Our service has captured a lot of professional interest due to its unique integration to both the medical practice and the community itself. One never knows, the article might inspire others to roll the idea out across the country.

How did you end up in East Devon?

We moved to Axminster from London back in 1993. Our main motivation was to bring up our children in the country, away from the stress and pollution of our urban environment.

What makes you happy and angry respectively?

Being a mother and bringing up my children is easily my happiest achievement: I feel it has, directly or indirectly taught me everything I know about life. Angry? It would be a close tie between injustice and intolerance, especially over trivial matters. Perhaps on reflection they go hand in hand. Isn't it one of the Dalai Lama's teachings to "be kind"? "One can always be kind". It is easier said than done.

Is there anything you would like to say to the people of Axminster?

I feel profoundly indebted to so many clinicians, supporters, service users and volunteers who tirelessly endorse our service and without whom Arc simply wouldn't exist. It is a privilege to be part of the general fabric of Axminster, my home for the last 21 years: its medical practice, its wide range of established charities and community organisations, its community spirit. Our relatively new charity now turns its attention to the future to ensure Arc's longevity for years to come, our greatest challenge yet. Thank you in advance for remembering us when you are considering fundraising for a good local cause, and for supporting our dedicated charity shop on Chard Street. Every little bit helps. Val Davis Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist.

Lindy Parry Podiatrist/Chiroprapist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Relationships!

HOW does the song go? 'It's my birthday and I'll cry if I want to...'

Sometimes it feels as if it's all too much to cope with – one more thing going wrong, one more pressure and everything will grind to a halt, or collapse like a pack of cards.

When a relationship isn't working well, the general pressures of life can feel unbearable. The build-up of hurts and resentments, or just the inability to communicate, can affect every other area of our lives.

It may, at first, feel strange talking about personal issues to a stranger, but having a third party who won't take sides, won't judge and can see through to the areas which need addressing, can bring some calm and relief to the situation. Counselling offers help - to understand how a relationship has broken down, to clarify responsibility and to offer strategies for change.

About me

I am a Relate trained and qualified counsellor with over 19 years of experience in offering professional guidance to couples and individuals wanting help or support with either relationship or personal issues.

My private practice consists of a mixture of couples and individual men and women. I offer confidential and affordable counselling at a convenient location in a comfortable and safe environment.

I am also a qualified trainer offering a variety of courses to the public, and Professional Development courses for counsellors, including 'Introduction to Mindfulness' Workshops.

For more information or to book a counselling session or a place on a Mindfulness workshop, call Anne Roberts on 01297 301 035, visit my web site www.couplecounsellor.co.uk, or email info@couplecounsellor.co.uk.

MASSAGE is a hands-on, holistic method of health care.

Massage therapists use hands-on techniques on the muscles, fascia, tendons, ligaments and joints to bring relief from everyday aches, reduce stress, increase relaxation, address feelings of anxiety and tension, and aid general wellness.

Massage therapy also treats specific physical and medical conditions by releasing muscle tension, restoring muscle and postural balance, increasing circulation and improving tissue nutrition. Therapeutic massage can effectively treat long term chronic pain, motor vehicle accident rehabilitation, athletic injuries, repetitive strain injuries and nerve impingements.

It can also be used in support of other therapies to assist in the rehabilitation of muscular injuries i.e. massage can improve the effectiveness and comfort level of chiropractic or physiotherapy care.

Massage can also be an important part of a preventative maintenance program. For long term health, consider a maintenance plan of monthly treatments. This approach works well when you are at a level of health that you want to maintain. The monthly massages take care of minor aches before they become painful problems.

Clinical and cognitive behavioural hypnotherapy including mindful awareness

MICHELLE has been busy in the first few months of the year alongside her busy Axminster Clinic and teaching for the London College of Clinical Hypnosis she has found the time to work with a class in Sidmouth College. Over a six week period, bringing Mindfulness, to a class in preparing for dealing with all that life brings, the practice helps students to make the most of every day taking time to just be, and helping them to cope better with stress, and their up and coming mock exams. The students responded

Wendy Fountaine Indian head massage

I TRAINED as a nurse in London and was fortunate to work in both management and community. When I moved to Devon in 1987, I worked for Marie Curie in the community, which was both humbling and rewarding.

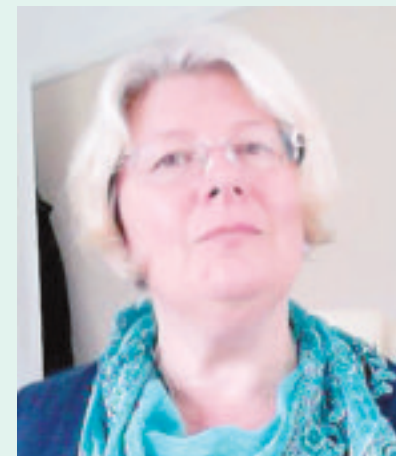

17 years ago I undertook training in natural healing therapy, both as a therapist and trainer. I subsequently trained as an Indian head massage therapist, whereby I could combine both therapies. Because I wanted to enhance the relaxation aspect, I trained as a Neutral Space practitioner. The results are amazing and I am both happy and confident to be offering these services.

very well, with many commenting that they would be using it in the future, and with some starting to use it regularly. Michelle was pleased with the results and returned later in the spring to help with Mental health awareness day, when she shared mindfulness again this time with the sixth form.

It seems that Mindfulness is the new "Buzzword" in therapy, but it has been around a very long time, there is no secret to it, and it fits in seamlessly to Michelle's therapy work.

All you need to do is think about it in the following way. M - for moment to moment attention, I - for in the here and now, N - for non judgmental attitude, D - for detached, F - for forgive and be grateful, some need help with this, U - for unconditional acceptance, and L - learn, always learn with the childlike mindset as if you are experiencing the world for the first time.

Helping you to take control of your life, if there is something you would like to change, call Michelle on 07761773563 and see if she can help.

Performance of Shakespeare and Rossini classics to screen at The Gateway

THE GATEWAY at Seaton Town Hall has another trio of top performances coming to the big screen during May.

Kicking things off on Thursday, May 1st is the National Theatre's performance of Shakespeare's King Lear.

Academy Award winner Sam Mendes (James Bond: Skyfall, American Beauty) returns to the National Theatre to direct Simon Russell Beale (Timon of Athens, Collaborators) in the title role of the Bard's tragedy. An aged king decides to divide his kingdom between his three daughters, according to which of them is most eloquent in praising him.

His favourite, Cordelia, says nothing. Lear's world descends into chaos.

Tickets are £12.50 in advance or £15.00 on the door

Doors open 6pm, and the performance begins at 7pm.

On Saturday, May 10th, the Met Opera's take on La Cenerentola will be streamed live.

Joyce DiDonato sings her first Met performances of the title character in Rossini's Cinderella story, La Cenerentola, with bel canto master Juan Diego Flórez as her dashing prince.

Met Principal Conductor Fabio Luisi leads a cast that also includes Pietro Spagnoli in his Met debut as the servant Dandini, Alessandro Corbelli as Cenerentola's stepfather Don Magnifico, and Luca Pisaroni as Don Ramiro's tutor, Alidoro.

Tickets are £15.00 in advance and £17.50 on the door

Doors open 5pm, and performance from 6pm.

Rounding out May's trio of top screenings is Royal Shakespeare Company's production of Henry IV on Wednesday, May 14th.

With his crown under threat from enemies both foreign and domestic, Henry IV prepares for war. Having deposed the previous king, he is aware of his tenuous position, and the price to be paid if he falters.

Meanwhile in the taverns and brothels of London, Prince Hal is revelling in the company of the notorious Sir John Falstaff.

With the onset of the war, Hal and Falstaff are thrust into the brutal reality of the battlefield, where Hal must confront his responsibilities to family and throne.

Following his production of Richard II in October 2013, RSC Artistic Director Gregory Doran continues his exploration of Shakespeare's History Plays, with Antony Sher as Falstaff, Jasper Britton as Henry IV and Alex Hassell as Prince Hal.

This is a live screening of the Royal Shakespeare Company's production of Henry IV

Part I, which plays in the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon during the spring & summer 2014.

Tickets £12.50 in advance or £15.00 on the door.

Doors open 6pm, with the performance starting 7pm.

Tickets for all the shows are available from the Town Hall by calling 01297 625699 or online at www.seatongateway.co.uk

Choral Society dedicates April Concert to Sir Neville Marriner on the occasion of his 90th Birthday

AXMINSTER is fortunate to have such a highly esteemed local resident in Sir Neville and the occasion was also notable as the concert was conducted by Judy Martin, described in Dublin as one of leading young choral directors in the United Kingdom. Judy has now returned to her roots and is resident near Axminster, close to other members of her family. After years away at Oxford colleges and Christ Church Cathedral in Dublin, Judy and her partner, noted organist and composer Peter Parshall, have decided to make East Devon their home.

The concert was a further outstanding occasion after the sell-out performance of Handel's Messiah in the Minster last December. Judy Martin said "the choir sang superbly. It was an extremely memorable occasion for me as well as all involved. I was also delighted that the orchestra was sourced from the South West and that two of the four soloists had been pupils of mine in the past". Axminster is indeed lucky to have such a world renowned musician in Sir Neville Marriner and an outstanding young prospect directing its Choral Society and a number of chamber choirs.

The Spring concert of the Axminster & District Choral Society and Orchestra was held at the Guildhall on Saturday, April 5th. The Society's regular venue, the Minster, is still receiving attention following the recent arson episode. The concert fell into two quite distinct halves. The opening half featured two works by composers writing very much in the English tradition of the early-to-mid 20th century, Sir Edward Bairstow and Ralph Vaughan Williams. "Five Poems of the Spirit" was Bairstow's last work and was composed in 1944, shortly before his death, while Vaughan Williams' "Five Mystical Songs" was composed some thirty years earlier, in 1911. There are many similarities in these works: both are settings of five poems, all written in the 16th or early 17th centuries; both feature a baritone soloist, backed by the choir; and both are beautifully orchestrated.

The baritone soloist was Edmund Danon and his voice was ideally suited to the lyrical nature of the works, mostly set quite high in the baritone range. This is beautiful music, and it was beautifully sung. Bairstow's setting of Walter Raleigh's "Purse and Scrip" and the Vaughan Williams setting of George Herbert's "Love Bade Me Welcome" were perhaps the most memorable of the two sets. This is intimate music in which the choir's and orchestra's roles in both works are mostly to support and to add colour to the solo line. The choir and orchestra did, however, have their opportunity to send the audience off to the interval in high spirits with the rousing setting of "Let All the World in Every Corner Sing".

The audience was treated to something completely different after the interval, a performance of Mozart's "Requiem". This was dedicated in honour of Sir Neville Marriner, a good friend of the Society, who had led a workshop and performance of this work in the Guildhall four years ago. Sir Neville celebrated his 90th birthday on April 15th. The Society had assembled a strong group of soloists for the evening: Josie Walledge, soprano; Laura Lamph, contralto; Edward Woodhouse, tenor; and Edmund Danon, bass. They gave excellent accounts of the three pieces of quartet work: "Tuba Mirum", "Recordare" and "Benedictus". Yet, the "Requiem" is a work in which the choir has the major role. Conductor, Judy Martin, is probably most readily recognised for her undoubted enthusiasm and energy, but these qualities should not mask her musicianship. She asked for and got a "performance" from her charges, both choir and orchestra, not simply a rendition.

The Society is to be congratulated on attracting and assembling a truly professional and talented group of 30 musicians to form the Society Orchestra. This does not come cheaply, but it is the way ahead, and it gives the choir the incentive to drive its own performance ambitions even higher.

Isca Ensemble to perform two Mozart pieces

TWO local experienced musical directors will share the conductor's rostrum in a special collaboration event in May.

Roger Hendy, musical director of the Isca Ensemble and Andrew Daldorph, musical director of the Exeter Chamber Choir, are combining their talents and forces in preparation for a very special concert in Sidmouth Parish Church on Saturday, May 17th at 7.30pm. For this unique venture, the concert programme contains two wonderful masterpieces by Mozart.

Mozart's Symphony No. 39 features in the first half and will be conducted by Roger with the Ensemble reduced to its normal chamber size after its recent magnificent Mahler Concert in March.

Ten years on after its inception, the Ensemble brings interesting and varied repertoire to East Devon and continues to receive high critical acclaim. Roger has for over forty years directed well over 150 concerts in Devon and France with choirs and orchestras and continues to bring to the region a rich variety of performances. He is delighted to share this concert with Andrew Daldorph and local choral colleagues.

Andrew Daldorph will conduct the second half of the concert using the voices of the excellent Exeter Chamber Choir in a performance of Mozart's magnificent Requiem Mass. Instrumentalists and singers are also being joined by four excellent soloists from London and Exeter - Rebecca Yates (soprano), Rachel Burnett (alto), Nicholas Yates (tenor) and Tim Murfin (bass). All four experienced singers have given many highly successful performances of oratorio works as well as featuring in leading roles in opera both at home and abroad.

There is a retiring collection for the Christian Aid International Appeal.

Tickets for this concert can be purchased in advanced from Paragon Books, 38 High Street, Sidmouth tel. 01395 514516 or through the Isca Ensemble website www.iscaensemble.org.uk.

Tickets will also be available at the door. Arrive early for the best seats!

Exmouth Town Concert Band to play fundraiser in Seaton

SEATON and District Lions Club present a concert by the Exmouth Town Concert Band at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, May 3rd, 7.30pm.

As usual, the band's wide ranging repertoire will be on display with marches, selections from films and musicals and even xylophone feature! Selections from Titanic, Holst's Second Suite in F, and Dambusters are just some of the favourites you will be treated to - there's something for everyone!

The concert will be raising funds for the East Devon Day Hospice Appeal, which needs to raise £250,000 to build and run a new, state of the art, day hospice centre in Honiton. The centre will enable patients and their families to receive care and support locally, provide a base for community nurses and be hub of information and advice for the community.

Tickets are only £6 each and are available now from The Gateway Box Office at Seaton Town Hall, Fore Street, Seaton, or by calling 01297 625699.

This really is an excellent evening with a huge variety of music from an established concert band of over 40 members, so make sure you don't miss out by getting your ticket now!

Doors open 7pm for a 7.30pm start. Licensed bar.

A JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR PRODUCTION IN AXMINSTER

IN NOVEMBER, Axminster Operatic Society will be staging one of the most exciting shows to have ever been performed at Axminster Guildhall! The Society is ringing the changes and has been granted the licence to perform the rock opera, Jesus Christ Superstar written by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice. The musical was written by them in 1971 and was an immediate hit. It ran in the West End and on Broadway for many years. It has been made into a film and professionally performed in over 42 countries and sold 7 million albums! The story is based on the last week of Jesus' life loosely based on the Gospels' accounts with memorable songs such as 'I don't know how to love him' sung by Mary Magdalene.

Nick Lawrence makes a welcome return to the Society as both Director and Musical Director. As Nick himself says, "I'm really excited to be directing on this iconic show and working with the company to produce some first-class entertainment."

Auditions for the show will be held on Sunday, June 1st at 3pm in The Masonic Hall, South Street, Axminster EX13 5AD with rehearsals starting on Monday, June 9th at the same venue. If you would like to be in the chorus, please come along on this date. To get more details, please contact axminsteroperatic@gmail.com or look at www.axminsteroperatic.co.uk for character descriptions.

Honiton Festival illustrated talk at The Beehive

THE Honiton Festival is pleased to announce details of its first evening event at the new Beehive, at 7.30pm on April 25th.

East Devon author Jonathan Walker will be giving an illustrated talk about his new book, Operation Unthinkable - Churchill's Secret Plan to attack the Soviet Empire.

This might have been an explosive move immediately after World War

Two but in the light of recent events in Ukraine a very topical subject. Russia and Eastern Europe have always experienced a volatile and often bitter relationship.

Jonathan Walker regularly lectures on aspects of military history to audiences both at home and on cruise ships and he has appeared in BBC and foreign television documentaries, as well as radio programmes.

He is a member of the British Commission for Military History and has recently retired as an Hon. Research Associate at the University of Birmingham. He is also a Vice-President of the West Country Writers' Association.

Tickets are available at Honiton TIC. For further details of this and future events, see www.thehonitonfestival.co.uk

Bridal beauty tips for healthy glowing skin

EVERY bride wants a radiant complexion for her wedding day, but it can be challenging to put aside the never-ending to-do lists and focus on your skin! The earlier you start the better; but even if your wedding is around the corner, your skin still has time to improve. Before you know it you'll be posing for your pictures in every angle and greeting your guests up close with hugs and kisses. Bridal beauty tips for healthy glowing skin.

1. Follow a good skin care routine

- In the mornings and at night, use a gentle cleanser that will properly cleanse your skin without drying it out.
- A hydrating serum with peptides will add moisture, boost collagen, and give you that bridal glow.
- Use a quality, gentle exfoliant to help shed dull, dead skin at least twice a week to keep the skin fresh and smooth.

2. Maintain healthy eating habits

- Since all of our habits reflect on our skin, making healthy food choices will only help our complexion look and feel healthier
- Drink 8 to 10 glasses daily to help clear up blemishes and make your skin more luminous.

3. Sleep

- Get proper sleep, 7-8 hours. The more you sleep, the more your skin will rejuvenate itself and regulate stress hormones that age the skin.

4. Reduce Stress

- Include yoga, exercise, and other physical activities as part of your health regimen.

Andy Neal at Picturelyme

A photographic jewel on the Dorset coast!

PICTURELYME is owned by Andy Neal who lives near Lyme Regis in Dorset. He sets the standard for photography in the area with a wealth of experience in the industry stretching back at least twenty years. Please read on to find out more about what Andy is all about when it comes to wedding photography....

Lyme Regis and the South West of England generally is one of the most beautiful places to get married. Wedding photographers are spoilt with some wonderful historic houses and a beautiful coastline with which to compose their photographs.

Beautiful fashion inspired photographs are our speciality as our photographer Andy has been a London fashion photographer for many years, his experience is used to create some memorable images of not just the Bride and Groom, but also the guests.

Andy's photographs hopefully speak for themselves, but if in doubt, here is a summary of what we are all about...

Here at Picturelyme Wedding Photography we capture everything that your special day has to offer. A careful and discrete approach allows us to move around and between guests with ease, capturing those magic moments as they happen. A long lens can make us seem invisible giving the photographer a the edge when composing those candid shots, we are equally happy setting up more formal groups both small and large, inside or out. A selection of indoor backdrops are available if the weather is not so kind.

Our aim is to provide a bespoke service, commissioned and controlled by you, the client, the bride and groom to be. An initial meeting is usually advisable so that we can meet and get to know each other a little which is useful in providing you with the perfect selection of photographs of your special day. An informal chat can provide us with all the information that we need to be able to plan the photographic day in detail.

From makeup and hair to the first dance and beyond, covering every minute, every guest, we have the experience to anticipate and capture every memorable point throughout the day. Moments of magic are caught for you to enjoy for years to come.

Based on the edge of Lyme Regis we are blessed with some amazing locations and venues in Dorset, Devon and Somerset. The iconic Cobb in Lyme provides a wonderful backdrop with the famous Jurassic Coast stretching out into the distance.

With a background in fashion, beauty and celebrity photography

Andy has been a professional photographer for over 20 years. From teen magazines to OK magazine, from commercial pr shoots to major advertising tasks, part London based, Andy has settled in the South West and is very please that he did.

For the past 10 years Andy has been Katie Prices sole photographer, shooting all over the world for OK and Hello magazine also most of the other UK based celebrity magazines. Also shooting for Katie's numerous other business's including book covers, KP Equestrian advertising, Working on her TV shows etc etc - we have become great friends and have a great professional relationship.

His approach is, and always has been straightforward and simple, keeping everyone happy, stress free and relaxed. This leads to a successful days shoot, weddings are no different, keep everyone happy and happy photographs ensue.

Please do not hesitate to give us a call

Wedding nails are the perfect complement to your bridal look...You've got the ring, the veil and the bouquet, now all you need are picture-perfect hands

The nail shape

MAKE sure that your nails are groomed from the minute you get engaged. Once you are engaged, you want to be careful not to compete with your engagement ring in any pictures, so it's best to keep the nails short and round.

The nail shades

Soft pinks and nude beige shades look chic and subtle. Try finding a shade that is closest to your skin tone ensures the polish won't compete with your beautiful engagement and wedding rings in pictures.

The longevity

You can get the most of your manicure when you apply very thin coats, letting the polish dry in between each layer so the solvents evaporate, it will wear better and last longer. Waiting at least a minute or two between each coat is recommended.

Sweetlands Country Fare

Bespoke catering for weddings, dinner parties and events, brought to you by professional caterer Pamela Sweetland and team...

We use only our own naturally reared organic meat and other natural, locally sourced meat. Whatever your occasion we will deliver a stylish and tailor-made menu that you can rest assured will be entirely additive free.

We are always happy to try new ideas and will work within your dietary requirements and preferences. If you would like advice on a suitable venue for your wedding or party we work with several in the local area.

Sweetland's can do as much or as little as you like. Order just one pie or an entire banquet, we put 100% care and attention to every booking we receive.

The entire team intend to make your event memorable and special; good natural food is a great place to start but we also deliver this with a personal service that you will not find elsewhere.

We work with you to create your menu that will not only be fitting to your budget but it will also leave your guests with a culinary experience they will not forget.

The New Mercedes-AMG GT

A NEW AMG high-performance automobile is all set for its world premiere in the autumn of 2014. The Mercedes-AMG GT will thrill sports car fans throughout the world with breath-taking design and supreme agility. Fascinating, dynamic - and versatile into the bargain: the GT is destined for a new segment - turning the dream of the authentic Mercedes-

AMG sports car into reality.

"The new Mercedes-AMG GT shows that we will be positioning AMG more vehemently and aggressively than to date as a dynamic sports car brand," notes Tobias Moers, CEO of Mercedes-AMG GmbH. "The technological substance of the Mercedes-AMG GT underscores our high aspirations with regard to driving dynamics, agility and sportiness. Following the global success of the SLS AMG, the new GT is the second sports car developed fully independently by Mercedes-AMG. An initial exclusive look at the design of the interior shows what is in store for our customers: a GT sports car in its purest form."

The sensual purity of a superlative driving machine

A sneak preview of the interior provides an alluring foretaste of the new Mercedes-AMG GT: the interior design embodies emotion and sensuality like no other sports car. The uncompromising lines of the interior components and their authentic materials exude a clarity that uses contrasting effects to help define the concept of "modern luxury".

A dominant aspect in the cockpit of the GT is the further stylistic development of the central "aviation design" theme which is typical of Mercedes-Benz sports cars. The dashboard places an extreme emphasis on width, creating an impression of a powerful wing. This effect is supported by the four central spotlight-style vents and the individual vents at the left and right ends of the dashboard. The dominant centre console presents a correspondingly dynamic character: its shaping reminiscent of a NACA air intake and the employed materials suggest that it has been adopted directly from motor racing. Another clever design feature comes in the form of the controls on the AMG DRIVE UNIT, which are arranged like eight cylinders in a V layout, further bolstering the powerful and high-tech impression made by the centre console.

A new version of the MINI Countryman

▲ The new MINI Countryman

A NEW version of the MINI Countryman – the first MINI to feature four doors, five seats and optional all-wheel-drive – will debut at the New York International Auto Show, further boosting the brand's advance into the premium compact segment.

Updated exterior design, optimised fuel consumption and emission figures – as well as innovative equipment enhancements – contribute to the more mature character and increased appeal of the new MINI Countryman.

With striking body design accents, refined premium characteristics in the interior and enhanced efficiency, the new MINI Countryman builds upon the strengths of the previous model. An important pillar of growth for MINI with 350,000 units already sold worldwide, this model has everything it takes to attract new customers into the MINI brand.

Increases in power output, improved aerodynamic properties and further efficiency enhancements (thanks to MINIMALISM technology), have resulted in better acceleration and top speed in some models.

All model variants now have lower fuel consumption and emission figures, as well as meeting EU6 emission regulations. MINI's ALL4 all-wheel-drive system continues to be available on MINI Cooper, MINI Cooper S, MINI Cooper D and MINI Cooper SD Countryman. The MINI ALL4 system comes as standard with the MINI John Cooper Works Countryman.

Exterior – sophisticated and rugged.

The distinctive appearance of the MINI Countryman derives from its dimensions, four doors, large tailgate and unique roof shape combined with the individual interpretation of MINI's hallmark proportions and design.

With the new MINI Countryman, both model-specific and hallmark brand elements are given additional emphasis. The upright front section conveys a powerful presence with a newly designed hexagonal radiator grill. A horizontal radiator grille rib finished in chrome on the new MINI Cooper S and MINI Cooper SD Countryman – along with a curved "S" in red – now give the front an even sportier edge. The front of the new MINI John Cooper Works Countryman features a red radiator grille rib supplemented with the John Cooper Works logo.

In all other model variants the radiator grille is now subdivided by two ribs. In MINI One and MINI One D Countryman models these are finished in high-gloss black, while in the MINI Cooper and the MINI Cooper D Countryman sport a matt silver version.

A number of new features enhance the robust and versatile character of the new MINI Countryman. In conjunction with the MINI ALL4 all-wheel-drive system, underbody guard elements for the front and rear apron (as well as for the side sills) are now included as standard. These highlight the ground clearance of the Countryman, indicating its potential for driving away from tarmac roads.

The range of exterior paint finishes available has also been expanded with the addition of Jungle Green metallic and Midnight Grey metallic, and Starlight Blue metallic paint is now available on the MINI Countryman for the first time.

A contrasting paint finish for the roof and wing mirror caps in black or white is available as a no-cost option (with the exception of the MINI One and MINI One D Countryman). A contrasting red paint finish is offered free of charge for the new MINI John Cooper Works Countryman. There are also Sport Stripes and bonnet stripes in a variety of colours to choose from.

Available on a MINI for the first time is the new Piano Black Exterior trim. In addition to the surrounds of the headlamps and rear lights finished in chrome as standard, a high-end dark shading is applied to the diagonal links between the A columns and front wheel arches, the roof rails and the cross-ribs in the radiator grille of the MINI One, MINI Cooper and MINI Cooper D Countryman. Chrome line exterior is available as a no cost option.

New reduced weight alloy wheels, LED fog lights.

The MINI Cooper and MINI Cooper D Countryman now come with 16-inch light alloy wheels in 5-Star 'Air Spoke' Design as standard.

Likewise, the 17-inch light alloy wheels in the new 5-Star 'Triangle Spoke' Design for the MINI Cooper S and MINI Cooper SD Countryman also save weight over their predecessors. They are also optionally available in a two-colour design. Both wheel versions are also available in an optional MINIMALISM version, including tyres with reduced rolling resistance for further reductions in fuel consumption and exhaust emissions.

Another new addition to the MINI Countryman are LED fog lights with LED daytime driving lights. This distinctive new feature is fitted as standard to MINI Cooper, MINI Cooper D, MINI Cooper S, MINI Cooper SD and MINI John Cooper Works Countryman.

Land Rover Unveils Pioneering Discovery Vision Concept

LAND Rover today revealed its Discovery Vision Concept SUV in New York. It is a vision of Land Rover's future family of Discovery vehicles, the first model of which is due in 2015. The concept car previews dynamic new design language and an array of innovative versatility and capability features, while also showcasing pioneering technologies from Jaguar Land Rover's advanced research division.

The Discovery Vision Concept was unveiled alongside a scale model of the Virgin Galactic spacecraft at a spectacular event aboard the USS Intrepid – a sea, air and space experience centre – in Manhattan, a day ahead of the opening of the New York Auto Show 2014.

With the Discovery poised to transition from a single model to a new family of vehicles which will redefine the leisure SUV category, the Discovery Vision Concept offers an exciting preview of Land Rover's vision for the range, and the modern, premium design language of future models.

Designed for the future

The Discovery Vision Concept alludes to its unique lineage with design elements such as the stepped roof. Far greater attention than ever before has been given to creating relevant versatility combined with compelling design. This is a radical and sharply focused approach to embodying Land Rover's vision of the ultimate leisure SUV.

mized by highly reconfigurable seating.

By folding the seats flat or sliding them forward or back, via the touchscreen menu, the vehicle can be converted from its standard seven-seat layout to a six-seat, five-seat or even a four-seat 'limousine' mode. Detachable, carry-away stroller-style luggage is seamlessly integrated into the vehicle doors, while accessories cleverly integrated into the seatbacks offer high levels of convenience to the passengers seated behind.

A versatile evolution of the Discovery's tailgate incorporates a powered, single-piece design; in conjunction with a deployable rear sill step and a folding bench seat in the loading area, it creates a flexible event platform with social seating for active lifestyles. On its own, the sill step can also be fitted with a bike/ski rack.

The theme of versatility continues with the materials used in the Discovery Vision Concept interior. The cabin is finished in two innovative types of washable and water- and oil-repellent Foglizzo premium leather that can be cleaned in seconds. Wood veneer on the floors and instrument panel and bespoke accessories lined in Harris Tweed help to create a warm, uniquely British feeling of quality and craftsmanship.

Honiton still on course for promotion

Feniton dent Newtown title hopes with draw

Devon & Exeter Round-up

ONE year after capturing the Second Division title, ELMORE have deservedly won the first division championship.

Their 2-0 win at ALPHINGTON was enough to clinch the title and with it probable promotion to Premier.

ST MARTINS now look odds on favourites for the Premier title after seeing off SEATON TOWN 3-0.

Dan Norman with two goals and Kevin Pike won it for the Saints who face an even bigger challenge on wednesday night at NEWTOWN, whose own hopes were severely damaged by a 0-0 draw at home to reigning champions FENITON.

Both sides played as well as they might, but a draw did not suit either team although Newtown had to hold on after having a player red carded.

TIVERTON TOWN are closing up after winning 5-1 at TOPSHAM TOWN, but they trailed to a Russell Brooker goal for some time before taking over.

HEAVITREE UNITED remain in relegation danger after slipping to a 2-0 defeat at HATHERLEIGH TOWN, and CLYST VALLEY are also in peril after losing 2-1 to WILLAND ROVERS and despite making a good recovery. Jordan Harris was Valleys scorer.

CHARD TOWN who struggled to field a side drew 0-0 with THORVERTON who finished the stronger but both teams were happy with a point.

SIDBURY UNITED look favourites to take runners up spot in Division One after their 4-1 win at BICKLEIGH, but they can still be overtaken by BOW AAC who were 7-2 winners at home to TIPTON ST JOHN. Kieran Stone with a hat-trick, two goal Nick Mingo, Alex Bowden and Paul Reed were the Bow scorers.

In the basement CULLOMPTON RANGERS won for the first time since Jan 5th when they defeated pointless NEWTON POPPLEFORD 5-1. Max Oliver, Ash Donohue, Luke Jones, Sam Tapp and Tom Broome scored for Rangers while League secretary Chris Davey who was watching the game said he was hugely impressed with the attitude and sportsmanship of the Popples.

Division Two leaders DOLPHIN cantered to a 6-1 victory against CULM UNITED, and hold off unbeaten HONITON TOWN who won 5-0 against SOUTH ZEAL with Brad Groves and Darren Witt both scoring twice.

EXWICK VILLA chasing third place beat DAWLISH UNITED 3-0 with Toby Tagg, James Mudge and Mark Harris sharing their goals.

UPOTTERY went down 3-2 at SIDMOUTH TOWN which could cost them the third division title if the University win five of their remaining six matches.

CHULMLEIGH are now in with a shout for promotion after beating second place HEMYOCK 3-0.

CHERITON FITZPAINE are really on fire in Division Four as they powered to a 5-0 win against AWLISCOMBE which at the same time ends their hopes. Darryl Pidgeon 2, Ben Spiers, Dan Pidgeon and Ashley Knight scored for the cherries.

Leaders LAFORD won the big game in Division Five 3-2 against MORCHARD BISHOP 3-2 having been three up at half-time, but there was a mild surprise at FENITON where second place LANGDON were happy to escape with a 0-0 draw.

ST MARTINS stay in contention after winning 2-1 at DAWLISH UNITED, but BOW AAC went down 2-1 at SAMPFORD. PEVERELL whose George Muggleton scored both goals.

OTTERTON regained their momentum as Division Six favourites with a 7-0 win at AMORY GREEN ROVERS, and are again within a point of UPLOWMAN who won 6-0 at Newton St Cyres 24 hours earlier.

ALPHINGTON hoping to get a promotion place from Division Seven suffered a 3-2 reverse at home to WOODBURY, while rivals RAILWAY CLUB were gifted three points because hosts PINHOE failed to raise a side.

CHERITON FITZPAINE are the new title favorites in Division Eight after beating WOODBURY 3-0, and with rivals HEMYOCK losing 3-2 at COLYTON.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
A DYLAN Gair strike appeared to be set to earn FARWAY UNITED an away win at Division One title-chasing Lyme Regis reserves last Wednesday. But the Seaside scored twice in the last nine minutes to pinch the points.

On the same night HAWKCHURCH UNITED banked a Division Three point with a 0-0 draw at Lyme Bantams.

Saturday - April 19th - It was a bad weekend for FARWAY UNITED. The club's first team capitulated to a hefty 9-0 defeat on their own Eastlee Park turf at the hands of title-chasing Perry Street Reserves with Dan Collins scoring four and Dan O'Connor three.

FARWAY RESERVES had been handed a reprieve, and a semi-final place, in the Ken Hodges cup after Thorncombe Reserves were found to have played an ineligible player in the 4-3 quarter-final defeat.

But this second chance was short lived as they missed out on a cup final appearance after they were beaten 4-0 at Crewkerne Rangers Reserves with Stacy Hawes grabbing a hat-trick.

In-form Gary Venn took his own goal tally to nine in seven with both goals in MILLWEY RISE RESERVES' 2-1 Division Three victory at lowly Chard Rangers.

In the same Division HAWKCHURCH UNITED's unbeaten run was extended to six matches after they came from behind with goals from Luke Harding, Gavin Herrod and Simon Herrod to beat promotion candidates Chard United Reserves 3-2.

Local runners out in force

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club members have been travelling the country to compete in various spring marathons. Clare Melbourne took part in the Manchester Marathon on 6th April. She has been training hard and completed it tired and exhausted in 4 hour 46 minutes. The race was won by Andi Jones in 2:16.

Kevin Hawker and Stephen Boyes' marathon was a bit closer to home in Taunton. Kevin had an aim to finish before 3:15 which would give him an automatic entry into next year's London Marathon. He had an incredible run smashing that target to come an amazing 5th overall, 2nd in age category in 2:56. Definitely a ticket to London!

Step Boyes managed to get around without walking although he hit the wall at 17 miles reducing him to a much slower pace. He finished in 3:43, 86th place overall. The race was won by Alan Ryder in 2:47.

Six runners travelled to London to take part in the London Marathon on 13th April. It was a lovely day for spectators but maybe a bit too hot for the runners. First back for Honiton was Hadleigh Davies who achieved a great personal best time of over 5 minutes. He finished in 3:22 having raised about £1800 for his charity CLIC Sargent.

Steve Davey was next back pleased to have finished but disappointed not to have been closer to 3:30. He finished in 3:41 having raised money for the club's charity of the year Devon Air Ambulance after gaining a place through the club ballot.

Julie Payne was the first Honiton lady back finishing three minutes after Steve. She had got her place for running a previous marathon in a 'good for age' time. She has completed the race before and found this one a long hard painful struggle compared to previous runs.

Mark Dallyn had won the other club ballot place so was also raising money for Devon Air Ambulance as well as Help for Heroes. He was quite happy to finish in 4:03 after suffering painful muscle tightening.

It was Jo Davey's second marathon and she was next home knocking 6 minutes of last time finishing in 5:05 having raised about £1800 for Prostrate Cancer. She thoroughly enjoyed the day echoing all the runners' opinions of great atmosphere and support along the way.

It was also Gary Enticott's first marathon and he bravely tackled it despite suffering from injury during training. In the end he was just pleased to compete and finish! His recorded time was 5:17.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS by Dave Mutter

PATRICK Devine-Wright had a great run at the Kilminster Kanter seven-mile multi terrain race finishing 2nd in 43:35.

Luke Reed was 7th, 47:27; James Trewick 10th, 48:18; Tim Sibley 14th, 50:40; Phil Bayliss 16th, 50:56 and first over 60. Ian Apps was 22nd, 53:00; Paul Johns 26th, 53:42; Eleanor Wood 28th and 1st over 55 lady taking 54:15.

James Sibley was 31st, 55:15; Steven Lewis 35th, 56:12 had a ding-dong battle with Robin Britton who was only 4 seconds and one place adrift with Nick Adams one second behind Robin.

Mark Hilder finished 41st, 57:48 and Adele Foxwell, who was in the London Marathon last week and together with Sue Campbell raised a fantastic £2,000 for the donkey sanctuary, was 42nd, 58:47.

Alan Morbey was 46th, 1:00:54; Andy Sayers 55th, 1:04:21, Mark Harding-Perrott 63rd, 1:10:21; Heather Lowman-Riggs 68th, 1:11:43 and Angela Kerr 73rd, 1:13:46. Susie Thoennissen, Rose Thoennissen and Louise Lacey ran together and were joint 73rd, 1:16:20 with Martin Kerr 80th, 1:21:34.

◆ As a result of her efforts in the London Marathon Michelle Bee was really pleased to have raised £2,000 for the Royal Air Forces Association, with more money coming in.

On a fleeting visit to Birmingham Carol Austin made a return visit to the Cannon Hill parkrun and secured a PB, 21:08 (1st W50, 66th out of 460, 5th woman) finally smashing the 80% age-grade with 81.16%.

County honour for hosts Axe Cliff

AXE Cliff Golf Club was honoured to play host to the Devon County Ladies Medal Finals on Tuesday, April 15th.

Ladies from all over Devon representing 35 clubs competed in the final made up of two divisions, silver and bronze.

Qualification for the final had taken place at the competitors home clubs. After all the hard work in preparation the course looked magnificent and the greens were running fast.

The competitors battled very strong winds throughout the day and although the scores reflected this.

The County President, Maureen Harris, and the County Captain Barbara Cummings, also a member of Axe Cliff, were on hand to present the trophies.

The Silver Division was won by 12-year-old Evie Stone (13) from East Devon and the Bronze Division by Margaret Yeo (23) from Ilfracombe.

AXE CLIFF with Helen Kenworthy

IN the Seniors' Section the return leg of the Emerton Court Trophy match at Axe Cliff saw the opponents Dartmouth field a very strong team.

This paid off for them as they eventually won the match 3-2 and overall by 7-3.

Many of the ties produced close results and in the end the winners for Axe Cliff were Rob Heard & Geoff Wake and Malcolm Glass & Nick Povey.

The reserve match which does not count in the final analysis went Axe Cliff's way with a win by Gilbert Cox & Roger Hill. Perfect weather last Friday attracted a field of 34 for the April Medal.

In a tight finish Phil Wilkins (15) won with 72 nett while two players tied a stroke behind on 73 nett.

Second place on countback went to Gerry Turner (11) with Gilbert Cox (20) having to settle for third place.

There were 2s from John Pugh, Tony Strong, Geoff Hughes and Rob Grove.

The Men's Section played the April Medal on Sunday, April 13th.

Founders Day

THE Club turned out in force on Saturday with members playing for the first Club Trophy of the year.

The Founders Day Trophy is competed for by all sections of the club, Ladies, Men, Seniors and Juniors, picked into teams of four playing to a Stableford format, two scores to count.

■ WINNER: Sophie Keech

■ HONOURED: Axe Cliff Golf Club staged the recent Devon County Ladies Medal Finals with County President, Maureen Harris, and the County Captain Barbara Cummings, a member of Axe Cliff club, hand to present the prizes to the winners

It's always a day of laughter and camaraderie with a chance to play alongside members you don't always meet in the Clubhouse.

The scoring was pretty good overall but the winners, Bab Barnes, Jackie Seager, Alan Devenny and Chris Street played exceptionally well racking up a massive 85pts.

In second were Graham Norman, Ron Graham, Janet Hughes and Sue Ritchie with 83pts and third, with the best of the 79pts were Spencer Macklin, Peter Clarke, Alan Seager and Charlie Doherty.

Tuesday Mixed

TEAM competitions are always great fun for the players - but can often cause headaches for the organisers.

This week gave Sue and Paul Ritchie a number of "challenges" - but all was sorted out in the end. Teams of four with two best Stableford scores on each hole to count was the format.

In first place with an excellent score of 85pts. were Elizabeth Ward, Janet Hughes, Max Pipe and Paul Ritchie. Good play as both Janet and Max had recently had their handicaps reduced.

In 2nd place with 82pts. were Jenny Reason, Sarah Loader, Bob Underwood and Phil Wall. 3rd position with 81pts. were Lesley Farley. Jane and Seniors Vice-Captain Mike Watts and Allan Seager.

Lady Captain Elizabeth Davies presented the prizes thanking both the catering and bar staff and the organisers.

Ladies Section

THE team of Mona Carter, Olive Pope and Monica Lacey really showed us how to play this week.

With a shotgun start 3BBB over 14 holes and with 2 scores to count they made a fantastic total of 71 Stableford points to win 1st place.

In 2nd place were Joan Smith, Gill Johnson and Linda McLaughlin on 62 points, ahead of Babs Knight, Sharon Dacre and Susan Hyde in 3rd with 60 points.

The competition was followed by our annual Spring Lunch - as always a very enjoyable way to kick off the new season.

Seniors Section

THERE was a large turnout for the Seniors' Good Friday 3-ball event, numbers being boosted to 84 by the addition of non-seniors.

The event was opened to younger club members to ensure that they could have a game on a Bank Holiday and to get a social mix.

All enjoyed the sunshine and the first game of the year played off grass tees. The best score in was 43 points scored by Peter Clarke, John Bevan and Chris Street.

Mike Drew, John Vessey and John Discombe were second. Alan Devenny, a two-over-par total of 146, putting her fourth overall six shots behind the professional winner Emily Taylor and two off second place.

This was a fantastic achievement considering she was playing one of her first competitions with new golf clubs!

Last month Sophie helped Millfield School reach the ISGA finals, which take place in Carnoustie at the end of the month.

Peter Wainwright and Bob Graham came in with 42 points, beating Ben Phillips, Malcolm Matthews and Larry Halliwell countback.

Keech Reigns in Spring Sunshine

SOPHIE Keech from Axminster who plays for Parkstone Golf Club in Dorset won the amateur competition at the Roehampton Open Gold Challenge Cup on Saturday.

She hit rounds of 72 & 74 to finish on

■ WINNER: Evie Stone

Outdoor bowlers underway in sunshine

AXMINSTER with David Harris THE Outdoor season at Axminster got off to a sunny start on Saturday with our lady President Mrs Lilian Lovatt delivering the first bowl and thanking all those members who have helped to get Clubhouse and green ready for another season.

Our Captains, David Harris and Ann Clayton, joined with the members in enjoying our first round-robin game which was won by Morrison Brown and Pam Hunter.

If you might be interested in joining in with our bowling or social activities, whether novice or experienced bowler, please contact Bob Sherborne on 01297 33094 to discuss. All are welcome.

HONITON with Tony Broughton

HONITON Bowling Club officially opened their Green for play in glorious sunshine on Saturday.

Alan Nex, the new Club President took over from the retiring Doug Hiron to cast the traditional first bowl of the season.

In true Middleton Cup fashion, Alan played for the County many times during his hay day in bowling, he touched the jack to show the magic never leaves.

Thirty nine players, that included a number of new bowlers and new members, first played a spider where all players play their bowls from the green edge to a jack placed in the middle of it.

The closest to the jack wins a prize, this year it was Ken Clarke.

The green played well for a first day and a great vote of thanks was given to Trevor Pipe and his band of helpers for the good work done during the closed season.

This year's Captains are Berry Maynard, for the Ladies and Tony Broughton for the Men and we all wish them the best of fortune for the coming summer.

Many of these players, plus quite a few of the Indoor season players, returned to the Club House that evening for a presentation of Trophies to the winners of the Indoor Competitions.

This was followed by buffet meal bringing a wonderful close to the Indoor season and a great start to the new Outdoor one.

Anyone interested in playing Bowls can come to the Club on Sunday 27th April from 10am to 2pm to try it out. All equipment and refreshment will be provided free.

■ SUNNY START: Axminster bowlers gather before the official opening of the outdoor season.

Bragging rights for Vikings

SIDMOUTH Town came out on top in the local derby with Budleigh Salterton at Manstone Road on Good Friday.

Budleigh opened the scoring with their first attack only for Jake Boyland to equalise seven minutes before half-time.

Andy Thompson edged the Viking ahead with a superb 25-yarder in the 67th minute and Alex Raistrick claimed the game-clinching third five minutes from time.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said: "That was a massive result for the club. I'm overjoyed because a lot of people work so hard to prepare for each game and I feel we have let them down on the pitch."

"Today we saw a dominant performance, hunger and desire that hasn't always been evident."

"A big crowd were entertained as both sides tried to play football, the visitors are a decent side with youth and pace and we faced it and dealt with their threat."

Next up for Sidmouth is the reverse fixture at Greenway lane on Saturday (3pm ko).

Last Tuesday evening a late goal denied AXMINSTER TOWN a useful point after a 2-1 defeat at fourth-placed Exwick Villa.

Top-scorer Ben Turner had earlier scored his 10th goal of the season.

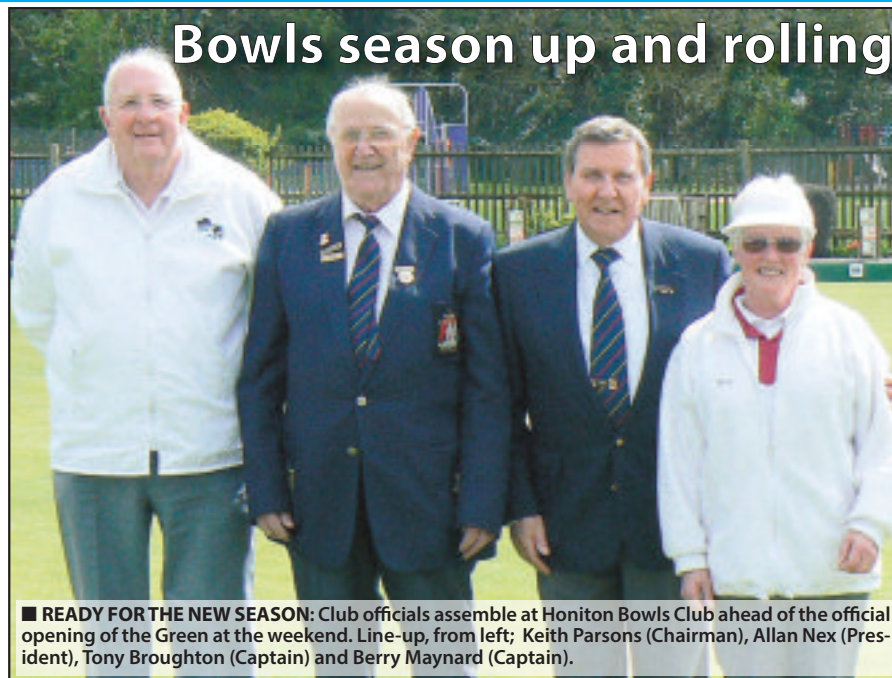

There was better news from Good Friday's trip to Teignmouth where an Adam Cowling goal, along with a first clean league sheet of the campaign, clinched an impressive 1-0 win over their third-placed opponents.

The Tigers, now 13th in the South-west Peninsula League Division One (east) table, were due to travel to face Appledore yesterday (Monday) before completing their campaign with a trip to Budleigh Salterton and Saturday and the visit of Plymstock next Monday (3pm ko).
